

Gerard Bertrand Domaine de L'Estagnere Rosé, Occitanie

Jewel of Languedoc, in the south of France, the City of Carcassonne is classified as a World Heritage Site by UNESCO. This wine presents a deep salmon colour. On the nose, it reveals very fruity notes...

Tasting Note

Jewel of Languedoc, in the south of France, the City of Carcassonne is classified as a World Heritage Site by UNESCO. This wine presents a deep salmon colour. On the nose, it reveals very fruity notes of wild strawberry and a slightly amygdala aroma. Long on the palate with a nice structure. Served at 10 - 12°C as an aperitif or with shellfish or fish.

Demo Version - Select.Pdf SDK

Full breakdown

Product Code:	00042148
Country:	France
Region:	Occitanie
Sub-Region:	Occitanie
Vintage:	2020
ABV:	14.5%
Bottle Size:	75cl